Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He said: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by E. W. Herring's drugstore. Price 50c.

We learn from the Star that James McCluhan died at his home on West Third street in Sumner Tuesday night of last week. He was a good man and his family will feel his loss keenly.

The Salisbury Democrat tells us that Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Wilhite are now installed in their new home on Broadway. This house, which has been building all summer, is one of the most beautiful, commodious and improvements Salisbury boasts. It is supplied with all modern conveniences, and is a handsome exponent of the architect's talent.

After the COURIER blazed the way, the Salisbury papers of last week gave an account of the Jackson-Smith-Crawford row in that town, but they were a week late. The COURIER gives the news while it is news. Come and subscribe.

Upon going home late Saturday evening, say the Salisbury Press-Spectator, A. W. Johnson found his horse with the buggy, hitched at his front gate and was informed that the reason things were so, was simply because another horse and buggy occupied his stable. He investigated and found a strange horse and buggy, put there by some person unknown. Mr. Johnson notified Marshal Crawford who came and took charge of the property. Upon investigation the horse was found to be the property of Ose McCurry of Hamden and the buggy of Jackson's livery barn. McCurry's hired man had ridden the horse to town, hired the buggy, filled up on booze and after driving around till he was tired had put the horse and buggy in Mr. Johnson's stable. The marshal found the man, whose name was Harry Jingle, on the streets and he acknowledged the truth of the charges, but said he had a right to the horse as he had ridden it with McCurry's permission. He then faded away and has not been seen since.

The Best Christmas Present for a Little Money.

When your Christmas present is a year's subscription to THE YOUTH'S COMPANION you give as much in good reading as would fill 20 400-page novels or books of history or travel or biography ordinarily costing $1.50 a volume. Nor do you give quantity at the cost of quality. For more than half a century the wisest, most renowned, most entertaining of writers have been contributors to the THE COMPANION. You need never fear that THE COMPANION will be inappropriate or unwelcome. The boy, the girl—every other member of the family—will insist upon a share in it. There is no other present costing so little that goes so far.

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber THE COMPANION'S Four-Leaf hanging calendar for 1907, lithographed in 12 colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the 52 issues of the year's volume.

Full Announcement of THE COMPANION for 1907 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.

Subscribers who get new subscriptions will receive $16.290 in cash and many other special awards. Send for information. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 144 Berkeley St. BOSTON, MASS.

The nimrods of Triplett have decided to have a Thanksgiving hunt, which will be divided into two parties, and the party killing the least game will be required to set 'em up to a fine supper to their more fortunate opponents. The editor of the COURIER eats but is a poor hunter. This item is intended as a hint to get a bid to the supper.

The recent protracted-meeting conducted by Eld. David Miller, the pastor, of the Christian church at Mendon, resulted in 18 accessions to that faith.
